

Symptoms	Disease	Solutions
 Fish appears bloated to the point of bursting. Scales become raised and stick out. The anus is often inflamed.	Dropsy	 KanaPlex      Focus
 Eyes protrude or appear to be "popping out" of their sockets.	Popeye	 KanaPlex      Focus      NeoPlex
 Fins appear shredded, frayed, or decaying. Usually has white lining along fins	Fin & Tail Rot	 ParaGuard      NeoPlex      SulfaPlex      KanaPlex      PolyGuard
 Thin white or gray threads appear; these build up their mass until they appear like patches of cotton.	Fungus	 ParaGuard      NeoPlex      SulfaPlex      KanaPlex      PolyGuard
 Streaky or blotchy reddening appearing on the fins near the body or under the scales.	Bacterial Hemorrhagic Septicemia	 NeoPlex      SulfaPlex      KanaPlex
 Ich: The fish appears sprinkled with grit or coarse sand. Fish rub against hard objects to free themselves of the parasite. Velvet: Surface appears dull and in heavy infections, the fish takes on a yellowish velvety texture.	Ich (Ichthyophthirius, cryptocaryon) and Velvet (Oodinium, etc.)	 Cupramine      MetroPlex      ParaGuard      PolyGuard